HOW IT WORKS

The key to achieving and maintaining a healthy weight isn't about short-term dietary changes. It's about consuming a well-balanced healthy diet that includes a variety of foods that give you the nutrients you need to maintain your health, to feel good, and have energy. With Inlivo you can stay in shape and achieve a healthier lifestyle through a simple three step process:

SELECT

Begin by using the Food Log to track what you eat. Inlivo will take your selection results and will put them to work.

ASSESS

Inlivo will evaluate your diet and will show you where you stand against other users. Based on a comprehensive nutritional analysis the app will notify you when your intake of specific food, vitamin or mineral is too low. It will also allow you to export your health data to Apple's Health app.

ADJUST

Inlivo will guide you through the process of making critical diet adjustments. You can start improving your diet by selecting from a list of product suggestions customized towards your health profile, special conditions and deficiencies.
